

Training & Placement Cell Profile:

The Training & Placement Cell of Government Polytechnic, Tadipatri is dedicated to enhancing students' employability by providing systematic training, career guidance, and placement opportunities. The cell serves as a vital link between the institute and industry, preparing students to meet the expectations of employers and succeed in campus recruitment. The Training and Placement Officer (TPO) organizes skill development programs, maintains industry interactions, and assists students in making informed career decisions for a successful professional future.

Details of the TPO
Name of the TPO	Sri. R. Sunil Kumar
Qualification	M.Tech, M.B.A, (Ph.D)
Designation	Lecturer in ECE
Email ID	tpo.gpptadp@gmail.com
Phone Number	9966148219

Roles & Functions of the Training & Placement Cell

Sno	Roles & Functions of the Placement Cell
1	Organize campus recruitment drives and facilitate connections between students and potential employers.
2	Guide students in exploring career opportunities, including higher studies, government jobs, and apprenticeship programs.
3	Provide training in aptitude, technical skills, communication skills, and interview preparation to enhance students' employability.
4	Conduct workshops, resume-building sessions, and career guidance seminars to prepare students for professional careers.
5	Maintain strong interaction with industries and arrange industrial visits, guest lectures, and technical talks.
6	Support students in securing internship opportunities to gain practical exposure and industry experience.